

ACCUROOF ROOFING CONTRACTOR SCHEME

Contractor Pack

The AccuRoof Contractor Installer Scheme (the "Scheme") provides roofing contractors with access to exclusive products, training and technical support.

Proving your credibility as a roofing contractor is a challenge, but the AccuRoof Contractor Installer Scheme can help.

The Scheme is a UK affiliation for experienced roofing contractors to will help you stand out from the competition.

What AccuRoof offers roofing contractors

- Priority access to exclusive products and guarantees.
- Fast track training on new products and techniques.
- Technical and onsite support.
- Bid support to win work for bids over 1000m².

Training

Scheme members receive product specific training in accordance with SPRA, LWRA and NFRC approved criteria and manufacturers recommendations.

Joining a preferred contractor database will help you a clear advantage over your competitors.

Training is available across the country at our numerous training facilities. We also recognise FTMRC member's hard metal training into the Scheme. Conversion or refresher courses are also available.

Technical and onsite support

Training is just the start of a member's journey. A dedicated team at Shepshed provides full technical support for all projects using our products. On site, we have a network of experienced area field technicians who can provide guidance and support.

Bid support

AccuRoof offer Scheme members extra contract support to help them win work.

For any projects over 1,000m² AccuRoof will produce a 'Bid Support Pack' which the contractor can present to their client when bidding for a project.

Warranties

AccuRoof offers a genuinely independent choice of waterproofing. AccuRoof is a part of FTSE listed SIG plc and maintains suitable professional indemnity Insurance giving you confidence in our services. Your customer offering can also be improved by knowing that AccuRoof can provide various design and materials warranties for roofing projects, including multi-material roofs, giving your clients greater confidence.

The Scheme is a gateway for roofing contractors into a relationship with our exclusive portfolio of products, training and support and our warranty system for peace of mind.

The information you will need to join is:
